Shri Keshub Mahindra, former CMD HUDCO passed away

We are deeply saddened to learn about the passing away of Shri Keshub Mahindra, the visionary founder and esteemed Chairman of Housing and Urban Development Corporation Ltd (HUDCO). Shri Keshub Mahindra was a true leader and a pioneer who was a guiding force in establishing and nurturing the organization.

Shri Keshub Mahindra held board level positions in both the private and public domain and made a profound impact with his vision, dedication, and hard work. His legacy will continue to inspire and motivate all of us.

His contributions to HUDCO will be missed, and we are all deeply distraught by his sad demise.

The entire HUDCO family extends deepest condolences during this difficult time.
